

Programme

10:00 - 10:30	Arrival, registration, refreshments
10:30 - 10:35	Welcome and housekeeping
10:35 - 10:50	Introducing today's competition
10:55 - 13:00	Increasing classroom engagement with Poll Everywhere: Presentations from user group members  Submit questions for presenters to PolleV.com/pollevuk 10:55-11:10 Enabling and empowering students using open-ended questions, Rosamond Watling, Regent's University London 11:15-11:30 They're alive! Empowerment with Poll Everywhere, Sarah Wright, Edge Hill University (A pre-recorded presentation) 11:35-11:50 From the transmission to the connectivism model of learning: The use of Poll Everywhere to promote student engagement in the digital age, Gustavo Espinoza-Ramos, University of Westminster 11:55-12:10 Revision Lectures revamped with Poll Everywhere Competitions, Agnes Grondin, Middlesex University London 12:15-12:30 Closing the Loop, Peter Smith, University of Liverpool 12:30-13:00 Questions and discussion
13:00 - 13:45	Lunch Show and tell: Please make free use of the numerous screens in the main room to show and tell how you use Poll Everywhere
13:45 - 14:30	What's new with Poll Everywhere? Brian Goodman from Poll Everywhere shares new features, updates and take your questions and comments  Submit questions for Brian to PolleV.com/pollevuk

14:30 – 15:15	World Café Refreshments available during this activity, please help yourselves A World Café is an activity in which you share ideas, ask questions, get advice, discuss topics and share practice. There will be several tables each with a specific theme and you'll circulate around the tables periodically to discuss the topics of most interest to you.
15:15 – 15:45	Feedback from the World Café Key points and ideas emerging from the group. Feedback and opportunity to discuss with Poll Everywhere.
15:45 – 16:00	Competition results and prize giving Closing remarks
16:00 – 16:30 Optional	Tour of learning spaces Will Moindrot leads a short tour of some of Liverpool's innovative learning spaces
16:30 onwards	Refreshments at nearby pub Poll Everywhere will treat us to a drink, so please join us

